

Tri-Hi-Y Bake Sale Scheduled Saturday

The Tri-Hi-Y of North Torrance will hold a bake sale this Saturday from 10 to 4 p.m. to raise money for its "youth in government" program.

Girls will be in front of McCown's Drug Store, 1327 El Prado, and Scotty's Department Store, 174th and Cronshaw. The money will raise some of the money to send youngsters to Sacramento as part of the "youth in government" program.

COMMON CROP
Wheat is the most widely distributed of cereal crops.

Nancy Coleman, Bob Hole Win Offices at South High

Nancy Coleman and Bob Hole were elected as presidents of the sophomore and freshman classes, respectively, in recent voting at South High School.

Five Cases of Mumps Reported in This Area

Five cases of mumps led the list of diseases in the Torrance health area during the week ending Nov. 2, according to the County Health Department.

Scarlet fever claimed four victims during the week, while there were two cases each of whooping cough, shigella, and syphilis, and one case each of epilepsy, hepatitis, measles, polio, and tuberculosis.

The elections were the first since the school opened in September.

Sophomore officers beside Miss Coleman include Carolyn Acosta, vice president; Sandra Chapman, secretary; and Carolyn Waddington, treasurer.

New freshman officers are Pat Roseberry, vice president; Beverly Jones, secretary; and Lucretia Wallace, treasurer.

Several other school clubs also chose officers in recent elections. They include:

Rally Club—Lou McMaus, president; Marion Daniels, vice president; Sheila Hogan, secretary; and Maren Courtney, treasurer.

Photography Club—Bill Davis, president; Kit Taylor, vice president; Sherrile Smith, secretary; Barbara Beil, assistant secretary; and Larry Kopp, treasurer.

Mathematicians' Club—Bill Davis, president and Mike Robens, vice president.

Southern Belles—Lynn Gish, president; Becky Kap, vice president; Pat White, secretary; Denise Toozad, treasurer; and Bonnie Hoetger, historian-reporter.

Baldy Boasts Snow Base

Mt. Baldy now boasts a snow covering of four inches which will serve as a good base should additional powder fall. The ski lift is operating week ends for sightseers.
